BABY SITTER SAVES 4 KIDS FROM FIRE

A 13-year-old baby sitter became a heroine last week when she saved four children from a burning home.

Sandra McAbee of 1016 Fiat st. saved the lives of four children belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton, 1130 W. Fiat st. shortly before the bedroom was gutted and about $4000 worth of damage done in the house.

Sandra was watching TV after putting the children to bed while the parents had gone to a movie to celebrate Mrs. Hamilton's 25th birthday.

In the middle of a TV drama Sandra smelled smoke. Investigating, she found that the clothes in the children's bedroom closet were smoldering.

Sandra led and carried the children outside, keeping them warm with a bathrobe.

Bursts into Flames
The closet burst into flames as she was taking the children out. The children are Deborah,

3; Sharon, 4; Carol, 5; and Charles, 6.

One little girl, Carol, ran back into the house to get her doll and Sandra raced back inside, rescuing both Carol and the doll.

No one was hurt in the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton's fifth child was visiting relatives when the fire occurred.

The Hamiltons built their own home plank by plank and will now repair it the same way.

The Hamiltons were grateful and had high praise for 13-year-old Sandra. "She is one of the quietest and most reliable girls in the neighborhood," Mrs. Hamilton said, stating that she is very responsible, having five brothers and two sisters of her own.

Tom Watson, manager of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, worked with KTLA to get Sandra on "Eyewitness" last week. He was also instrumental in obtaining free transportation for the girl by Yellow Cab.

On TV Red Cross workers also pitched in right away to replace shoes and clothing for the children and bedroom furniture, as well as making further arrangements with the family for additional help.

Firemen from two county companies fought the blaze. Fire department officials were unable to determine a definite cause for the fire but suspected that it was children playing with matches.

Dog Bite Victim Seeks Aid

Dean Johnston, 23, of San Pedro, who tried to help a little dog after it was hit by a car, was bitten on the thumb by the frightened animal which then scampered off. The accident occurred Friday night at Pacific Coast Highway and Western ave.

Johnston believes the animal's leg was hurt. He asks anyone knowing of the whereabouts of the dog to contact him because he will have to take painful Pasteur treatment if the dog is not located within seven days, as a precaution against the possibility of rabies.

The dog, which is probably healthy, would just have to be placed under observation.

Johnston may be reached at TE 3-5615 or at TE 2-7018, the home of his mother, Mrs. Harold Johnston who will be home in the evening.

Only FRIGIDAIRE Has it... the World's Newest Washing Action! The Sensational, Years-Ahead

RUB-FREE
Washing Action

gets clothes cleaner without the wear and tear of thrashing and rubbing

Here is all the timesaving, work-saving convenience of an automatic with the piece-by-piece care of hand laundering.

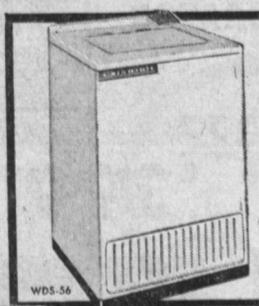

Here's how it works: The Pulsator Agitator plunges up and down, whips soap and water into a super-cleaning combination. Keeps clothes constantly moving under water.

Saves on clothes—washables last much longer.

Saves on soap and detergents—multiplies their cleaning power immensely.

Saves water, time and money—uses considerably less water than most other automatics, washes clothes faster, so uses less current.

Come in, watch us wash nylons, wool blankets, Orlon coats and sweaters with complete safety. See the Rapidry Spin that whirls pounds of extra water out of every load; Float-Over Rinsing that automatically gets rid of lint and soap scum; the flexible Econo-Dial and Select-O-Dial that regulate water and wash cycle for the load to be washed.
